EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Vice President and Mrs. Marshall to Spend Holidays in Arizona.

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing Among Dinner Hosts This Evening—Mrs. Bradley to Give Children's Party.

Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, will resume her at-home days at the Willard this season on Wednesday, January 24. She will be at home after that every Wednesday until Lent. The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will spend Christmas in Arizona, with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kinney.

Mr. Vance McCormick, chairman of the democratic national committee, who was a guest of the President and Mrs. Wilson at the White House for several days, left Washington yesterday for his home at Harrisburg, Pa.

The Russian ambassador and Mrs. Bakmeteff will be among the guests at the dinner party the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing are entertaining this evening.

Brig. Gen. Charles L. McCawley was host at a luncheon today.

Mrs. Edson Bradley will give a children's party, with dancing, followed by moving pictures, on Thursday afternoon from 4 until 7, when the little honor guests will be Miss Helen Blodgett, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Spencer Wood, and Miss Anita Poor Bulmer, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer.

The third assistant secretary of state and Mrs. William Phillips have dinner invitations out for December 18 to meet the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall.

Gen. and Mrs. Henry P. McCain will entertain at dinner at the Army and Navy Club in honor of the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker on Thursday evening, December 21.

Senator and Mrs. Willard Saulsbury are entertaining at a reception tomorrow evening at their home in 19th and R streets. The entire Senate has been invited. There will be no guests outside this circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Wendell will come to Washington for the late winter and early spring. They have leased the residence of Mr. Charles McFee in Sunderland place and will take possession about the first of February. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell were guests last week of Gen. and Mrs. Charles F. Hughes at their home in Sheridan Circle.

Mrs. Lawrence Townsend is entertaining at tea this afternoon the young women who will assist at the benefit at Rauscher's Friday night for the tubercular soldiers of France, and the men who will act as ushers.

Mrs. Delos Blodgett will chaperon a box party at the theater this evening for her daughter, Miss Helen Blodgett, who is entertaining in honor of her house guest, Miss MacDaniel of Atlanta, who arrived at Washington yesterday. On Friday Mrs. Blodgett will entertain at luncheon for Mrs. A. W. Waite of Ann Arbor, Mich., and Mrs. John Carroll Payne of Atlanta, who will reach Washington tomorrow to be her house guests during the monthly board meeting of the National Society of the D. A. R.

Mrs. Charles W. Williams has as her guest at the marine barracks her daughter, Mrs. Arthur W. Ford, who will be joined shortly by Lieut. Ford, now visiting his father at Governors Island. Lieut. and Mrs. Ford will leave before the holidays for Fort Monroe, the former's new post.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ford will receive informally this afternoon.

Senator-elect and Mrs. Peter Goetz are guests of Mrs. Richard Townsend at her residence in Massachusetts avenue.

Mr. Reginald Hildekoper, whose marriage to Miss Beattie du Pont, of Wilmington, will take place January 24, has purchased the residence, 1707 New Hampshire avenue, where he and his bride will make their home. The house was occupied by the former Secretary of the Navy, Mr. George von L. Meyer, and later by the late Mr. George W. Vanderbilt. The house is being furnished, and Miss du Pont, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Berger at Tuxedo, their suburban home, in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Charles Paul Hubacher. The guests to meet them were Mr. and Mrs. Frederic At-house will take place tonight at 10 o'clock. The dances are among the smartest of the winter. The dates are December 13, January 1, January 8, January 15, January 22, January 29, February 5, February 12, February 19, February 26. The dance committee is composed of Viscountess de Sibour, Mr. John P. Wilkins, Viscount de Sibour, Mr. George P. Eustis and Mr. Reynolds Witt.

Mrs. Charles M. Foulke has as her guest Mrs. William Hill of Boston, who will address the meeting of the District branch of the Belgian relief committee today at 1226 Connecticut avenue. Mrs. Hill arrived last evening.

Judge and Mrs. Eduardo Naon and their two children, who have been visiting the former's brother and sister-in-law, the ambassador from Argentina and Mme. Naon, for some weeks, left Washington yesterday for New York. Judge and Mrs. Naon and their children will sail from New York on January 6 for Buenos Aires.

Mrs. George T. Mayne will come to Washington tomorrow from Pittsburgh, where she has come to fetch her little daughter. Mr. Mayne, former ambassador to Russia, has returned to their home at N street and Connecticut avenue from New York, where with Mrs. Mayne he attended the wedding of Mr. Winthrop Aldrich, son of the late Senator Aldrich and Miss Harriet Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Upson of Cleveland, Ohio, have leased the house of Mr. Carl Vrooman, returned Saturday from Europe, at 300 Massachusetts avenue for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Elkins will spend the winter with Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins in her K street home, going there the middle of next week.

Mrs. Nelson Dingley, widow of former Representative Dingley of Maine, has leased the residence of Mrs. John T. Granger, at Connecticut avenue and Leroy place, and will spend the winter here.

A luncheon for the benefit of George Washington University Hospital will be served by the board of lady managers of the hospital at the Raleigh Hotel, from 12 to 2 o'clock on Tuesday, December 12. A bazaar will be held in the forenoon and a dance at night.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood, 19 Poplar avenue, Takoma Park, Md., was the scene of a quiet wedding Saturday noon, when the daughter, Grace Estelle, became the bride of Mr. John Otway Ellis of Peoria, Ill., a 1914 graduate of the Bliss Electrical School of Takoma Park. Rev. C. C. Clark, pastor of the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the members of the family. The altarpiece in the parlor was tastefully decorated with ferns and lavender chrysanthemums, and formed a pretty background for the ceremony. The bride wore a modish tailored costume of brown, with hat and shoes to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of bride roses. Upon their return from a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will reside in the Shadle apartments, in Carroll avenue, Takoma Park.

A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of the bride at the home of Miss Anna Watkins, at the Watkins apartments, Takoma Park, D. C., on the evening of December 6. Besides receiving many beautiful gifts, the bride-to-be was presented with a lovely chador dish as a wedding gift from the girls representing the Sunday school class of the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, of which she is a member. Those present were Misses Anna Watkins, Bunnie Parker, Margaret Kroll, Dorothy Smith, Frances Corbett, Frances Cruik, Gertrude Lewis, Amelia Williams, Esther Holmes and Grace Estelle Cruik. A lovely gift was also sent by Miss Lucile Stockberger, who is away at college, and who is also a member of the same Sunday school class.
